

The Rotary Club of San Juan

Pilot Program:

Corporate Membership

1. Approval. A corporate entity or organization can become an eligible corporate member of the Rotary club by having a Primary Corporate Member as a regular club member. A Primary Corporate Member is a member of the eligible corporation's senior executive group.
2. Designees. Once there is a Primary Corporate Member, the entity may designate up to three more corporate designees, each of whom can be managerial individuals employed full time by the eligible corporation.
3. Changing designees. The corporate entity may change any of its designees so long as at all times one of them is a Primary Corporate Member.
4. Inductions. A corporate member designee will be formally inducted into the club as is done by any other regular member.
5. Attendance. The attendance requirement for an eligible corporation is the same as any other regular member.
6. Classification. The classification of the eligible corporation and its designees will be established by the club. Because a corporate member is an official member of the Rotary club, this classification will be counted toward the classification limits set forth in the RI Constitution, Article 5, Section 2(b).
7. RI registration. Each designee will be listed as an official member of the Rotary club and will be noted in the roster that they are designees of the named eligible corporation.
8. Badges. Badges will be the same as any other regular member.
9. Votes and quorum. For the purpose of general meetings and club matters, designee voting will be the same as any other regular member. As official members of the Rotary club, members would apply toward RI election voting.
10. Holding office. Each designee, as an individual, can hold any office in the Rotary club to which the designee is elected in the normal way. The number of designees to hold an office at any one time will be limited to one member.
11. Financial obligations. The financial obligations of an eligible corporation may be as follows:
 - a. Initiation fee: $1,000 to establish the Corporate membership.
 - b. RI dues: Payable for each member as stipulated in RI Bylaws 17.030.

- c. Annual club dues: Each Primary Club Member and designee will pay the annual club dues of $50 per quarter plus $25 per quarter as a sustaining Paul Harris member.
 - d. Meal/beverage costs: The Primary Corporate Member will pay for every lunch, as a regular club member. Each of the designees will pay only when they attend, by cash or check.
 - e. Change of membership status from corporate designee to active: This will be the same except all lunches will be billed as for regular members.
 - f. Conversion from designee of eligible corporation to individual membership while no longer employed by eligible corporation: This will be the same except all lunches will be billed as for regular members.
12. Conversion. A designee of the eligible corporation, while still an employee of the eligible corporation, may convert to an individual membership of the club in a process determined by the club. The club will establish how initiation fees, dues, and costs will be handled. The club will also determine whether and how a designee who has been a member, upon leaving the employ of the corporation, can convert his/her membership to an individual membership.
13. Bulletin and communication. Each designee will receive the club's weekly bulletin/newsletter and regular club communications the same as any other regular club member.
14. Receipt of The Rotarian or Rotary regional magazine. Each designee will receive the RI magazine the same as any other regular club member.
15. Public liability cover. The corporate member designees will be included under the respective club liability insurance while participating in any approved club activities or projects.
16. Participation in youth activities. The corporate member designees are expected to abide by all restrictions, policies, and procedures with respect to club activities involving youth.
17. Termination. The process for terminating the membership of a designee or the eligible corporation is the same as any other regular club member.
